

HOST TEAM TRAINING

02/07/18

a = 61.77

b = 38.22

WE ARE FOR THE GUESTS

What it means to be a host

- What we do
- Why we are important
- Team building and leadership development (our vision)

Our message: "We are for the guests"

- Our value as a team
- Balance between grace and imposition

Team organization and importance of planning ahead

- Remaining strong as a unit in two different locations
- "I'm strong if you're strong."
- Communication between your team leads and servant leaders
- Planning & confirming throughout the week

TRAINING & OPERATIONAL: iTech and JDD

- Team huddle & prayer
- Host Orders of Service and Rules
- Doors Open
- Drapes
- After drapes come down
- Control Organization
- Offering
- Offer ends & worship Begins
- Worship ends & sermon intro starts
- Prayer ends & sermon starts
- Distraction-Free Zone
- People leaving early
- Baby crying
- Host Movement
- Room Stages (ONLY JDD)
- Fill worship
- Put seats down in middle

Service Ends

- Setup and Cleanup
- Making cards in advance
- Team members must know cleanup is as important as setup

Posts and importance of attendance confirmation

- All servant leaders should rotate throughout positions
- Importance of commitment to attend the service if previously confirmed
- Take ownership of your post/section. You are the direct manager
- Creating fun gifs from photos
- Creating fun stop motions
- Motion graphic elements incorporated from apps

v=VOUS

team night

